Professional Experience

- April 2003 to Present Sentence Mitigation, Custody Consultation, Post-Conviction Litigation
Durham, North Carolina
National, private solo practice advising attorneys and individual defendants at all stages of criminal prosecutions, from misdemeanor to capital offenses, from pre-charging to plea negotiation to sentencing and post-conviction. Services include calculating and mitigating sentences under the Federal Sentencing Reform Act of 1987, using both the advisory United States Sentencing Guidelines (“U.S.S.G.”) and non-Guidelines statutory arguments; providing detailed Federal and State defendant histories, with creative sentencing and post-release alternatives; assisting federal defendants and attorneys with post-sentencing custody issues, including Federal Bureau of Prisons security classifications, facility designation and transfers, drug abuse treatment and other programming requests, and administrative inmate remedies; requesting federal supervision transfer and early Supervised Release termination; litigating post-conviction challenges to conviction, sentence, or conditions of confinement; and seeking Federal agency records under the Freedom of Information Act and the Privacy Act.
- June 2001 to April 2003 Senior Case Developer, National Center on Institutions and Alternatives
Alexandria, Virginia
Investigations, legal research, and advocacy position that provided Federal and State post-conviction advice and advocacy, including preparation of detailed defendant histories and mitigation reports in misdemeanor, felony, and capital prosecutions; post-sentencing and custody assistance, especially involving Federal security classification, facility designation, programming options, transfers, and administrative remedies; and post-custody counsel, including supervision transfer.
- Oct. 1998 to Aug. 2000 Law Clerk, Jefferson County Attorney's Office
Louisville, Kentucky
Predominantly criminal legal research position including: pretrial witness interviews and preparation, prosecution development and caseload management; attorney-supervised criminal motion and discovery practice; litigation preparation and trial support; written appellate advocacy; and policy and legislative research and drafting.

May 1998 to Law Clerk, Legal Aid Society of Louisville (Kentucky), Housing Law Unit
Aug. 1998 Civil legal research position that included conducting client intake interviews; researching and drafting legal memoranda; conducting apartment inspections; requesting records under the Kentucky Open Records Act and Federal Freedom of Information Act (FOIA); preparing litigation materials; and supporting trial advocacy.

Sept. 1997 to Student Assistant, Brandeis School of Law Library,
May 2000 University of Louisville, Kentucky
Selective part-time position providing general patron and library management services; researching legal and general issues for Law School faculty; and training new Library employees
